Vancouver Neighbourhoods

OUR GUIDE TO THE BEST EATS AND MORE

We are proud ambassadors of our community, and have eaten our way through most of Vancouver!

Here are some of our favourite neighbourhoods to explore.

Granville Island

PUBLIC MARKET | ARTISANS | MAKERS

BOOK TOUR ➔

This is our home turf and one of Canada's most famous artisan districts. Between the Public Market and the 9 acres that surround it, there are 300 makers, bakers, creatives, and chefs who call the island home!

Highlights:

- Join the Granville Island Market Tour. It's 100% delicious and we're 100% confident that it's the best way to experience the food and culture of the Public Market.
- Take a leisurely stroll around the Island- there are lots of shops, galleries, and park areas to explore.
- Explore the Vancouver shore in a Seadoo, Paddleboard, or Boat with Vancouver Water Adventures.

City Centre

BUSINESS | GLASSY SKYSCRAPERS | HAPPY HOURS

This is a cross section of office towers, luxury hotels, art galleries and shopping. There's an energy on the streets that comes from people filling their day's purpose.

Highlights:

- Make a reservation at Miku and get the Aburi Sushi. If you're only making one reservation, this is worthy!
- Start the day at a local patisserie - Thierry, Bel Cafe, or Faubourg should do nicely!
- Have lunch at a local food truck- some can be found near the Vancouver Art Gallery and throughout downtown.
- Rent a bike or take a tour around the city with Cycle City.
